

Charles E. Nesbitt, Jr.

Charles E. Nesbitt, Jr., an alumnus of Morehouse College, was born and raised in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is the son of the late Charles E. Nesbitt, Sr., founder and pastor of Bethesda Baptist Church of Brooklyn, and Dorris Nesbitt, who still serves as Bethesda's Minister of Music.

Pastor Nesbitt has served as the pastor of Springfield Baptist Church, Sparta, Ga., Mt. Olive Baptist Church, McDonough, Ga., and has currently served Providence Baptist Church of College Park, Ga. since 1985.

Under Pastor Nesbitt's leadership, Providence has been both evangelistically and socially active, realizing the responsibility of the church is "to know Christ, and make Him known." This focus has led to an array of ministries which seek to serve every gender, age, and segment of our society. Providence is currently exploring avenues through which to partner, for the development of properties in College Park and South Atlanta, to continue to meet community needs and advance the kingdom of God.

Pastor Nesbitt is a member of the National Baptist Convention, USA, has served as a member of the Executive Board of the Hampton Minister's Conference, and is one of the founding members of Shemoneh, a consortium of pastors committed to assisting the body of Christ, particularly in the area of the pastorate.

Pastor Nesbitt is married to the former Joanne Morris of Savannah, Ga. They have three children; Charles III, Alexandra and Jennifer.
